BOSQUE FARMS MUNICIPAL COURT RIGHTS

You have the right to bail if you were arrested and remain in custody.

You have the right to see, hear, question, and cross examine the witness who testifies against you at trial.

You have the right to call witnesses to testify for the defense and have them subpoenaed and require appearing at no cost to you.

If jail is not considered a court appointed attorney will not be provided.

You have the right to private counsel at any step in the process.

You have the right to remain silent.

Any statement made by you may be used against you.

Questioning a witness at trial does not constitute a statement made by you.

If you testify at trial, you will be subject to cross examination.

A plea of guilty or no contest may impact your immigration and naturalization status.

I understand the above rights.
